GOVERNMENT OF INDIA
MINISTRY OF LAW
(Reforms)

NOTIFICATION

New Delhi, the 23rd March, 1948

No. G. G. O. 37.—The following Order made by the Governor-General is published for general information:—

THE INDIAN INDEPENDENCE (ADAPTATION OF CENTRAL ACTS AND ORDINANCES) ORDER, 1948.

WHEREAS sub-section (3) of section 18 of the Indian Independence Act, 1947, provides that save as otherwise expressly provided in the said Act, the law of British India and of the several parts thereof existing immediately before the appointed day shall, so far as applicable and with the necessary adaptations, continue as the law of each of the new Dominions and the several parts thereof, until other provision is made by laws of the Legislature of the Dominion in question or by any other Legislature or other authority having power in that behalf;

AND WHEREAS sub-section (1) of section 9 of the said Act provides that the Governor-General shall by Order make such provision as appears to him to be necessary or expedient for bringing the provisions of the said Act into effective operation and for removing difficulties arising in connection with the transition to the provisions of the said Act;

NOW, THEREFORE, in the exercise of the powers conferred by the said Act, the Governor-General is pleased to make the following Order:

1. (1) This Order may be cited as the Indian Independence (Adaptation of Central Acts and Ordinances) Order, 1948

(2) It shall come into force at once.

2. In this Order, the expression "Central Act" has the meaning assigned to it by clause (8aa) of the General Clauses Act, 1897, and the expression "Ordinance" means any Ordinance made by the Governor-General under section 72 of the Government of India Act as set out in the Ninth Schedule to the Government of India Act, 1935.

3. (1) The Central Acts and Ordinances specified in the Schedule to this Order shall, until repealed or altered or amended by a competent Legislature or other competent authority, have effect subject to the adaptations directed by that Schedule and by paragraph (2) of this Article.

(2) Wherever the expression "the whole of British India" or the expression "British India" (otherwise than in the expression "the whole of British India") occurs in a Central Act or Ordinance, whether in an Act or Ordinance specified in the Schedule to this Order or not, then, unless that expression is by that Schedule expressly directed to be otherwise modified, or to be omitted, there shall be substituted for the expression first-named the expression "all the Provinces of India", and for the expression second-named the expression "the Provinces":

Provided that nothing in this paragraph shall apply to --

- (i) the Revenue Recovery Act, 1890 (I of 1890),
- (ii) the Indian Railways Act, 1890 (IX of 1890),
- (iii) the Indian Income-tax Act, 1922 (XI of 1922),
- (iv) the Excess Profits Tax Act, 1940 (XV of 1940), or
- (v) the Business Profits Tax Act, 1947 (XXI of 1947).

(3) References in paragraph (2) of this Article and in the Schedule to this Order to any Central Act or Ordinance shall be constructed as references to that Act or Ordinance as amended or modified by any subsequent Act or Ordinance and as in force in the Dominion of India immediately before the coming into force of this Order.

4. The Provisions of this Order shall have effect notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in the India (Adaptation of Existing Indian Laws) Order, 1947.
